SQUAD OF POLICE AT RACE TRACK

Forced Entrance Into Delmar Park When They Were Denied Admittance.

THE CONSTABLES INTERVENE

Tried to Arrest Police Captain, Who, Surrounded By His Men, Resisted.

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, MO., July 24.—Under order of Governor Folk, 100 policemen, under command of Captain McNamee, to-day forced entrance into Delmar race track, just outside the city limits, to see that there was no volation of the law against pool selling, and to arrest any persons seen making bets. No arrests were made.

seen making heis. No arrests were made.

With a squad of 300 policemen, Captain McNamee appeared at the race track entrance at the time of the first race and demanded admittance. This was not granted, and the policemen marched in,
meeting with no resistance.

Fearing attempts might be made to resist the officers if arrests were to be made, Captain McNamee ordered a second squad from the reserves and the 'squad had just arrived when Constable Leniz, with a posse and a warrant, charsing traspass and destruction of property, endeavored to arrest Captain McNamee, Chief of Police Kiely had ordered that none of the officers should submit to arrest, and Captain McNamee refused to allew Constable Lentz to take him into custody, his own men surrounding him in protection until Lentz desisted.

The races were run on schedule, and when the last race had been finished everybody departed.
